Collins Computing Achieves Top 100 VAR Recognition for 10th Consecutive Year

Orange County, CA — May 20, 2013 — Collins Computing, Inc. is honored to announce their inclusion in Bob Scott's Top 100 VARs list for 2013. This is Collins Computing's 10th consecutive year receiving this recognition—emphasizing their success in helping businesses with their ERP and CRM challenges.

“We want to congratulate this year's class of Bob Scott's Top 100 VARs,” said Bob Scott, executive editor of Bob Scott's Insights. The Top 100 are chosen from organizations specializing in the sale and implementation of Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) and accounting software and is based on annual revenue generated by each reseller. A special report that includes names of the organizations selected for this year's Top 100 list, ranked by revenue, is downloadable at <http://www.bobscottinsights.com>.

Randy Forkner, President of Collins Computing, states “Our 10 consecutive years on the Top 100 list is due to the many organizations who trust us to solve their financial, customer relationship management (CRM), business intelligence, distribution, and non-profit business issues. Our dedicated team is here to implement, service, train, and customize the Microsoft Dynamics software solutions our clients need to more efficiently run their growing organizations.”
